

The (Inter)National Quality Framework The Musical!

With Dr. Red Ruby Scarlet and Louise Dorrat

The National Quality Framework (NQF) is a professional learning experience with a difference - written and performed by Dr Red Ruby Scarlet & Louise Dorrat and adapted for the Educational Leadership Project Conference on 14 March.

The Musical addresses practice & pedagogy;

- Educational programs
- Curriculum design
- First Nation's Perspectives
- Team work & Leadership
- Critical Reflection
- Documentation
- Inclusion and Anti-Bias
- Art

It is about the experience of early childhood educators in everyday practice. The two characters - Red (educator) and Lou (coordinator) take the audience through the professional and emotional experience of daily life in an early childhood setting.

This is a professional learning experience like no other. Get ready for an intellectual, ironic, engaging, toe tapping, hand clapping, finger snapping interactive performance to reclaim the joy.

Dr Red Ruby Scarlet and Louise Dorrat have been working in early childhood for over 30 years. They also have qualifications in drama and dance. Together they combine their experience and expertise in early childhood curriculum, systems, worldly justice, and the creative and performing arts to create innovative, inclusive and ingenious approaches to professional development.

Louise and Red first met via social media and they instantly could tell they were fellow dynamic dramaturgical thespians! Lou asked Red to sing and dance in the closing number at a conference 10 years ago, meeting for the first time at rehearsal. The rest is early childhood musical history!
